

HANDOUT

Dissecting the Compelling Question

Directions: Read the question below, and then follow these steps: (1) Circle any words you do not know or understand in the context of this prompt. (2) Star words that seem to be the central ideas of the prompt. (3) Jot down any questions you have or anything else that you need to find out in order to be able to answer the prompt at the end of this inquiry.

What can we learn from Boston's past about what it takes to make progress toward educational justice today?